SUSPENSION OF RED SEA TRANSITS AND CALLS AT THE PORT OF SUEZ

Following renewed security incidents in the southern Red Sea, Meridian Ocean Lines is suspending all Red Sea transits with immediate effect from 17 October 2026.

Scheduled calls at the Port of Suez are cancelled until further notice. Export cargo booked from the Port of Suez cannot be loaded and will be held at the terminal.

Asia-Europe services will be rerouted via the Cape of Good Hope, adding 10 to 14 days to transit times. We will review the situation on 30 November 2026.

Calls at Jebel Ali Port and other Gulf ports outside the Red Sea are unaffected and continue as scheduled.

Shippers should expect equipment imbalances and should contact their local office to rebook affected cargo.
